Compere, Danny Ward's observational humour is up-beat and well honed and his manic style both endearing and very funny. With a high energy set and brilliantly well observed material covering everything from the randomness of the Lidl, to how to get the 'London Look' the gags keep coming.

Opening the show, Dominic Holland is one of the country's most respected stand-up comedians. A Perrier Best Newcomer and Nominee at the Edinburgh fringe. With countless television and radio appearances including HAVE I GOT NEWS FOR YOU and THE ROYAL VARIETY PERFORMANCE, LOOSE ENDS and THE NEWS QUIZ, as well as his two BBC R4 series – Dominic's quick wit and accessible material has allowed him to tour the UK constantly and he has established himself as a firm fixture on the business entertainment circuit also.

Followed by, Mike Cox reached the semifinals of both So You Think You're Funny in 2012 and Leicester Square New Comedian in 2013. In 2014 Mike reached the final of the Comedy Gladiators Competition and in July was winner of the Fosters South Coast Comedian of the Year Award.

Headline act, Bob Mills is a true elder statesman of British stand-up comedy. The man who bridged the gap between the first wave of "alternative comedy" in the mid-eighties and the new laddism of the early '90s, star Bob Mills is as popular today as when he first strolled on to the comedy circuit in 1985. Bob is one of the most recognisable and respected comedians in the business. On radio Bob has presented his own shows on BBC London and he still regularly covers for Danny Baker. He's also a popular guest on 'Fighting Talk' (BBC Radio 5), TalkSport, TalkRadio & Loose Ends (BBC Radio 4).
